➤ BY PLANE (Granada airport):

Taking a bus from the airport to Granada:

Granada airport is located 10 km from the city. After each flight, there is a bus for passengers between the airport and the city center (various stops). The bus costs 3 €. More information at Granada Airport Buses: <http://www.granadadirect.com/transporte/aeropuerto-granada/>.

To take a taxi from the airport you just have to go to the taxi stop located outside the airport or call 958 28 06 54.

It would be better to ask how much the trip will cost before getting into the taxi in order not to get surprised, especially if you are a foreigner. On these trips the taximeter is not used, since the airport is outside the city limits, and it has a fixed price depending on the area you are going to. There is an official list of prices you can ask the taxi driver for. The price is about 25 euros.

Once inside the taxi it is only necessary to indicate the direction of the hotel.

El Carmen de la Victoria is located in an historic neighborhood of Granada (Albayzín), an area considered World Heritage by UNESCO. Traffic is restricted to residents almost all the day and it is not possible to get to the Congress venue by car (see map). Taxis are allowed access, so it is always possible to use these.

From Plaza Nueva a very attractive way to go is by foot, following the river Darro to Cuesta de Chapíz. It takes 15-20 minutes.

There is also the bus to go to EL Carmen de la Victoria. Bus No. 31 (called "Alhambra Bus") stops at the Peso de la Harina (in the Cuesta del Chapíz). Carmen de la Victoria is located in front of the bus stop. These buses (which are smaller than usual) go through Gran Vía street, Reyes Católicos, Plaza Nueva, Carrera del Darro, Paseo de los Tristes and Cuesta de Chapíz. In this last street, get off at Peso de la Harina (see diagram below).
