

Centre for Open Learning for Seniors

The Centre for Open Learning for Seniors works to provide those aged 50 or over with the opportunity to further their education and develop new skills in an enjoyable learning environment. Learners identify their own personal goals, are given the necessary support from the Centre to achieve them, work individually and in groups, and learn at a pace that suits their lifestyle. We work in three key areas; teaching, research, and the provision of services to society.

CENTRE FOR OPEN LEARNING FOR SENIORS