

<http://www.englishclub.com/>

This link offers lessons for the study of grammar, vocabulary, for the improvement of the four skills, etc. There are also interactive quizzes available in this web.

<http://www.uefap.com/>

This link provides a guide for students in higher education. It helps students to improve their skills and vocabulary through advices and exercises.

<http://www.englishlearner.com/>

This is a link for learners of English as a second or foreign language. There are interactive tests and quizzes, teacher's resources and student mailing lists.

<http://english-zone.com/>

This is a fun site for students who are learning English as a Second Language. They can learn some idioms, practice English verbs, test their grammar, write a fun story, etc.

<http://www.vokabel.com/>

In this site students can test their own knowledge of vocabulary, their knowledge of the different tenses, etc. in several languages (English, French, German and Spanish).

<http://www.isabelperez.com/grammar.htm#Grammar>

This site can be very useful since it provides a lot of exercises and activities about grammar. The exercises have been designed for students of different levels: Primary Education, ESO, Bachillerato, etc.

<http://www.englishpage.com/grammar/>

This link provides a grammar book of high-quality English lessons and exercises to help English learners learn English grammar online.

<http://www.isabelperez.com/happy/tenses.htm>

This link offers an interesting and useful resource for the study of the English tenses. Through this link, the students can learn the use and differences of the English tenses in a funny way. It offers grammatical explanations and exercises.

<http://www.esl-lab.com/index.htm>

In this site you can find vocabulary lesson plans.

<http://www.parapal-online.co.uk/index.html>

This site contains a variety of interactive English exercises. They are designed to improve the listening, writing, reading, vocabulary and grammar skills.

<http://www.mansioningles.com/index.htm>

This site can be very useful for teachers and learners. It offers vocabulary and listening exercises, grammatical explanations, tips for teachers, etc.

<http://www.english-hilfen.de/en/index.htm>

This site can be a complete resource for teachers and learners. It offers grammatical explanations, listening and reading comprehension exercises, vocabulary explanations with exercises, etc.

<http://a4esl.org/>

There are grammar, vocabulary exercises on this web according to the level of students (easy, medium, difficult). There are also bilingual quizzes.

<http://iteslj.org/v/s/>

This link offers a variety of vocabulary exercises. It can be very useful for beginner students. They can learn through different English-Spanish vocabulary quizzes.

<http://users.skynet.be/providence/vocabulaire/>

This site offers about 500 words from every day life in English, French, Dutch and Danish in different themes. Through multiple choice games with pictures students can improve and increase their elementary level.

<http://www.vocabulary.co.il/>

This link can help beginner students to learn vocabulary in an easy and funny way. This site provides different types of games: wordsearch, crosswords, match games, jumble, etc. and students can select the level (easy, hard), duration and topic of the game, etc.

http://eslprograms.vcc.ca/ESLWEB/ESL\_Sites/CALL\_ONLINE\_CENTRE/call\_online\_centre.html

Through this site students can practice their vocabulary, grammar, their knowledge of word order, gambits, etc. There are different quizzes for different levels.

http://www.clec.ritsumei.ac.jp/english/biz/menu\_vocab.html

This site presents vocabulary quizzes for medium and advanced students. It deals with business vocabulary. Students can choose the level and topic.

<http://www.xtec.es/%7Epsanz/tick/exang/index.htm>

This link presents different vocabulary quizzes. Students can choose the level and topic.

<http://www.edumatic.qc.ca/English/activities/vocabularypower3.asp>

This site provides a collection of links which is intended for Basic English Literacy students studying at level 4, an upper-intermediate or advanced level of English. It is designed to give students an opportunity to practice and improve their vocabulary skills.

<http://www.isabelperez.com/grammar.htm#Vocabulary>

This link offers a wide range of vocabulary exercises. Through this site, students can learn specific vocabulary (food, clothes, sport, etc.), idiomatic expressions, etc. The exercises have been designed for students of different levels. This site also offers pronunciation exercises.

<http://www.vocabulary.com/>

This link provides a wide range of vocabulary exercises for students of different level (fill-in-the-blank, crossword, matching, etc.). It also offers vocabulary lesson plans.

<http://www.eduplace.com/kids/schoolbooks.html>

This site provides vocabulary and spelling exercises. You can select the type of exercise (crossword, spelling game, word builder, etc) and the level. It also offers reading exercises. Through this site, students can learn English, History, Geography, etc. It can be especially useful and funny for beginner and intermediate students.

<http://www.funbrain.com/vocab/index.html>

This site provides a wide range of games to learn vocabulary, to practice the reading skill, etc. It can be very useful for beginner students who can learn vocabulary in a funny way.

<http://www.ohiou.edu/esl/english/vocabulary.html>

This site provides vocabulary activities for different levels (basic, intermediate, advanced), idioms, etc. It also offers a vocabulary section for specific purposes.

<http://grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/vocabulary.htm>

This link offers some pieces of advice for the learning of vocabulary such as the use of the dictionary, the learning of prefixes and suffixes, etc.

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/reading/bestpractices/vocabulary.htm>

This site is mainly focused on the importance of vocabulary. Here, you will find activities and resources to use in your classroom, a model lesson on video, and an online development session for vocabulary instruction.

<http://www.tv411.org/vocabulary/>

This link offers interactive exercises that give students the opportunity to learn the use of prefixes, suffixes, words with multiple meanings, etc. These activities are designed for adult learners but will work with middle school and above.

http://people.bu.edu/jpettigr/Artiles\_and\_Presentations/Vocabulary.htm

This site provides useful tips and techniques for teaching vocabulary.

http://www.sheppardsoftware.com/web\_games\_vocab.htm

This site offers activities to learn vocabulary in context and in isolation, learning tips, word of the day features, etc. Each quiz provides immediate feedback for each item.

<http://www.lextutor.ca/tests/>

This site offers a wide range of vocabulary tests in English and French. The tests have been designed for different levels.

<http://esl.fis.edu/vocab/index-fp.htm>

This site offers exercises which help learners to improve their vocabulary. The exercises are classified according to the level and subject.

