

Universidad de Granada

Modern Languages Centre (CLM) to offer intensive courses in summer term

12/06/2019

University news & events

Every year, over 8,000 local and international students enrol on courses offered by the UGR's Modern Languages Centre, Confucius Institute (Chinese), "Russkiy Mir" Russian Centre (Russian), "al-Babtain" Chair in Arab Studies (Arabic), and the Euro-Arab Foundation for Higher Studies (Arabic).

The Modern Languages Centre (CLM) is one of the leading institutions in Spain for language learning and offers general and intensive Spanish language courses at all levels (A1-C2); as well as language and culture programmes; and Hispanic studies courses. The Centre also provides a wide range of courses in the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Swedish, Romanian, Arabic, and Persian.

In summer 2019, CLM will run intensive courses in the following languages:

- Spanish
- English
- French
- Italian
- German
- Japanese (general Japanese courses and an introduction to Japanese through manga)

All of the courses delivered at CLM adhere to the guidelines set out in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Moreover, CLM is part of the Cervantes Institute Network of Associate Centres, the most prestigious global institution in Spanish language teaching.

For further information please visit:
Modern Languages Centre (CLM) website